Happy New Year! No articles this month. I think we have been concentrating on the holidays. Hope you had a good holiday. This year was a Wichita Xmas for me.

A reminder to members to pay your 2022 dues ($60).

We had a good December memorial meeting for John Setterlind. John Wharrier played his bagpipes and we played two naval games in his memory.

I look forward to seeing everyone in 2022 and surrounded by lots of games. I would like to hear what your wargaming plans are for 2022. I'm still trying to make sense of 3D printed 6mm Samurai.

Colorado Military Historians, Inc.

Colorado Military Historians (CMH) is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to promote historical wargaming and the study of military history. Founded in 1965, CMH meets monthly on the second Sunday of the month, except in May when the meeting is deferred to the third Sunday. The meeting starts at noon at the Baker Recreation Center, 6751 Irving Street (just a few blocks west of Federal Blvd), Denver, Colorado. The club also hosts gaming at least one Friday night a month, called “Friday Night Fights” (FNF) at 7:00 p.m. Friday meetings will be held at a future determined location. See website for latest information.

CMH maintains ties with numerous local, regional, and national groups to help promote the hobby. CMH is governed by member-elected officers serving on the Board of Directors (executive board). Terms of office are one year, with elections held at the May meeting. New members are accepted after attending three CMH functions and a vote of the membership. Dues are $60.00 per year, payable in January. Members wishing to receive a snail-mailed newsletter subscription must pay an additional fee of $15.00 per year. Authors retain ownership of articles and graphics published. CMH reserves the right to edit or reject submissions to the newsletter.
